

SAINT JOHN TRANSIT

Service Update

Tuesday March 17, 2020

Saint John Transit service continues to operate on a regular schedule.

Saint John Transit is following the lead of the Chief Medical Officer of New Brunswick with regards to Covid-19.

Saint John Transit continues to clean buses daily and has increased the cleaning of frequently touched surfaces.

Any updates regarding the status of our service will be posted on our website and Twitter.

The health and safety of our passengers and employees remains our priority.
